

Forum for Life
Annual Report for 2011

ADDRESS

Dear friends!

I want you to tell a tale that is very suitable for this time and it reflects what's going on in our common forum – Forum for Life.

There was once a king and he had the only daughter. It was very difficult for him to reign because there was much, much evil and unrest in his kingdom. This evil was coming from a single hole in the royal garden. The king was no table to break the deal. He was willing to give anything for it to make evil in his kingdom gone. He was even willing to give his only daughter and the entire kingdom. He said that the Princess would belong only to the one who makes evil from his garden uprooted.

The princes were coming, rich and poor boys. Anyone tried to throw away this evil from the hole in the royal garden. The more they were digging the hole and throwing away the evil, the more the evil were multiplying and the hole was deepening.

Then a wise young man arrived to the royal palace that covered the hole with the good. The evil was buried and it stopped spreading. Happy king rewarded the young man king as he promised. The young man married the princess and got the whole kingdom.

Since then, in this kingdom there were ruling good and peace.

This tale was told by Mr. Anton Neuwirth to his children when he returned from prison. Despite all the grievances and injustices that he received, he began to treat evil with love.

At the birth of the Forum for Life ten years ago there were some amazing people who today are no longer with us. But the message they left behind will live with us and in us.

During the year 2011, we commemorated the 10th anniversary of its establishment. I want to thank everyone who helped us and still helps to bring in Slovak society goodness, hope and solutions for the protection and development of human life and family. I am confident that Forum for Life significantly contributed to the fact that the topic of protection of life is still alive in Slovak society. And I want to express my hope that the next decade, which is before us; the position of the movement for life will become even stronger.

KEY AND LONGTERM PROJECTS OF FORUM FOR LIFE

Day of the Conceived Child

In the week from March 21, 2011 to March 27, 2011, 11th year of our annual campaign March 25 - Day of the Conceived Child was taking place. Compared to the year 2010, this year it was even larger and greater. The main idea was the slogan: „Life is beautiful. Protect it from conception“. It was possible to support the campaign by wearing white ribbons on the dress. There was organized a Prayer march to save the conceived life in Bratislava and Kosice, too.

A part of this year's campaign was the premiere of an U.S. film Bella, which started to be screened in Slovak cinemas right 25th March. From the Union of Film Distributors results that this film ended up in the numbers of spectators at the 67th place out of 520 movies with a total of 18,417 spectators and 435 performances.

At the occasion of the 25th March Forum for Life wrote a letter to the members of the National Council of SR in which they were invited to join the campaign on the child conceived. There was also stressed the importance of family and our proposals to the current pro-life challenges.

In terms we could describe the campaign as follows:

- 200 billboards across Slovakia (in 2010 there were 80 billboards)
- 60,000 leaflets and 2000 posters
- 20 times a spot aired on the TV channel 1 in prime time

- Number of sessions (STV 2, LUX, Lumens) dedicated to the Day or relatives topics
- Spot broadcast on 23 regional TV stations
- 200 volunteers in the streets of all the regional capitals
- Nearly 7,000 members of the facebook group „For Life“
- A lot of positive messages on the website www.25marec.sk
- More than 100% increase of visit rate to sites www.25marec.sk (more than 6,600 genuine visitors)

„The reactions of people have been mostly positive; they often expressed their support for us. They were taking out white ribbons very gladly. Sometimes they came along themselves to get one. I was surprised very pleasantly by a girl who looked over my narrative, as if I retarded her incredibly, but when I showed her pictures of saved babies in the flyer suddenly it came out of her: „Wow, that's really cool that someone is doing such a thing.“ During the morning people had more time, one could also talk a bit about this subject. Best could have been „captured“ a group of people, if one stopped, all stopped. To more people white ribbon wasn't completely unknown, they saw a group on Facebook or a billboard. It seems that this year's theme of a cute baby in a pink background „captured“, many appreciated it.“ From the mouths of volunteers who handed out white ribbons in Bratislava.

Conference Vyber si život (Choose Life)

The traditional part of the campaign is also an international conference „Choose Life“ held under the auspices of the MEP Anna Záborská and Mayor of Rajecké Teplice Peter Dobeš. The XIII. Annual conference took place on March 25 – 26, 2011 in Rajecké Teplice. It focused on issues of respect for people with disabilities, which corresponds to the title of the conference: The purpose of life is love, not perfect health. At the conference, there were speaking among others, the Paralympic winner Veronika Vadovičová, the MEP Anna Záborská or archbishop of Trnava Robert Bezák. During the gala evening, the Chairwoman of Forum for Life Marcela Dobešová gave also the Anton Neuwirth Prizes for the Protection of Life to both Slovak and foreign personalities: Mária Šustrová, Gianna Emanuella Molla and the c.a. Inclusion.

Candle for Unborn Children

Also on the first of November 2011 the Candle for unborn children took place. This year again, the number of distributed candles and leaflets was increased. Through different forms of a project more than 300 parishes in about 150 towns and villages were involved in which we were greatly helped by hundreds of volunteers. The most common way of involvement in the project was the memorial prayer for children who died in abortion.

In Slovakia, within the project Candle for unborn children various prayer meetings took place, Holy Masses were celebrated, and even marches were organized. The largest of these took place on the third of November in Kosice in the presence of Archbishop of Kosice Bernard Bober. The event was prepared by the civic association Children of St. Elizabeth, Institute for the family and parish Kosice-Juh.

The project has been traditionally associated with the collection in which it is possible for a voluntary contribution to obtain the original Candle for the unborn. In the parishes involved in Slovakia there were placed about 55,000 of original candles with flyers and prayer for respect for life. In 2011, donors contributed to the project with the sum of 51,762 Euros.

Since 2009, Forum for Life maps the monuments of the unborn and memorial tombs of the unborn in Slovakia. This year the number has grown, too and we currently register 27 such places.

Zachráňme životy (Save the Lives)

The project Zachráňme životy (Save the Lives) which is helping pregnant women and mothers in need celebrated in December 2011 its fourth anniversary. Since the beginning of the project we were able to help 55 women and their children and 48 babies were born. Of these, 46 infants remained with their mother and only two children went for adoption. Totally, we have been dealing with 834 cases for the last four years. Donors have contributed with more than 109,000 Euros. 100% of the given amount has been transferred to help the women and save their children.
